GOOD REASONS

For Patronizing the Moseley House.

1—I am pleasantly located, near all that is of interest and on the main street, where all the elite of the city pass, and opposite the large dry goods house of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

2—I find everything neat and clean at the Moseley House, and feel as if at home, for they make me so.

3—I find the Dining Hall for Ladies and Gentlemen well cared for and as pleasant as any seaside resort—no flies, and the Rotating Fly Fans keep one cool and pleasant, while I can enjoy one of the good meals you can always get at the Moseley House for 50 cents.

4—An enterprise that the traveling public should appreciate and patronize is the Moseley House.

DISSOLUTION OF CO-

PARTNERSHIP.

I hereby announce that I have this day sold my interest in the business of the late firm of Hardin & Pescud, to Messrs. Thomas Pescud and T. L. Eberhardt, who will continue the business under the name and style of Eberhardt & Pescud. All claims against Hardin & Pescud will be paid by Eberhardt & Pescud, who will also collect all accounts due said former firm.

In taking leave of my old friends and customers, I beg to express to them my grateful appreciation of the steady and generous support they have given me for the past thirteen years. I trust they will be equally kind to my successors, whom I cordially recommend to all my friends as eminently worthy of confidence and support.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1890. EBERHARDT & PESCU.

Referring to the above notice, we respectfully announce that we have this day formed a partnership for the transaction of a general grocery and provision business as the successors of Messrs. Hardin & Pescud.

With increased facilities for doing business, and an experience (as to one of the partners) of twelve years in this branch of trade, we hope to merit a continuance of the generous patronage extended to the late firm; and to increase it, if an increased stock, low prices and close attention to the wants of our customers will accomplish that result.
